Tumon Bay, Guam's exciting resort district, never sleeps. Hugging a flawless mile-and-a-half crescent of white sand are luxury resorts, trendy restaurants and shopping centers aglitter with the likes of Cartier and Christian Dior.

HAFADA

Perched beachfront along the bay, the 600-room Outrigger Guam Resort offers deluxe accommodations with ocean views, and guest room amenities that include a private balcony, hair dryer, in-room safe and refrigerator, and complimentary coffee and tea service. Discriminating Voyagers ClubSM guests enjoy special services and amenities, including an exclusive lounge serving complimentary continental breakfast and afternoon cocktails and canapes.

The Outrigger Guam Resort also boasts a restaurant, lounge, a full-service Mandara Spa and Salon, fitness center, children's playground and pool, business center, pool with water slide and wedding chapel. At the hotel's activities desk, you can book water adventures of all kinds —windsurfing, deep-sea fishing, sailing, snorkeling and diving. Hiking and golf also occupy the active traveler.

You could spend an entire day browsing at The Plaza, a bustling shopping, dining and entertainment complex connected to the Outrigger Guam Resort. Diversions here include the renowned Sam Choy's Restaurant, UnderWater World featuring the longest walk-through aquarium ever built, the ever popular Hard Rock Café, and designer shops including Coach and Gucci.

Guam is a derivative of the word guahan, meaning "we have," from the language of the Chamorros, the earliest known inhabitants of the Mariana Islands. Guam indeed has a lot to offer, and the greatest joy of its people is sharing this bounty with visitors.
